PHONE COMPANIES AT WAR. Patrons Will Benefit by Getting

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

St. Charles, Mo., Jan. 23.—A telephone war, has been started here between the Kinloch and Bell telephone companies.

Up to a year ago the only service was given by a local independent telephone company, but the Bell company entered the field and gained quite a foothoid. Last month the Kinloch company secured control of the local company's franchise, and, after constructing a pole line from St. Louis, began putting in a metallic circuit system here and promised very much cheaper rates.

here and promised very much cheaper rates.

Representatives of the Kinioch company have been soliciting business since the be-ginning of the year, especially residence 'phones, and learning of this the Bell com-pany has decided to meet it by putting in residence 'phones free for one year for all business men having 'phones at their places of husiness. A merry war and cheap tele-phone service for this city are looked for here this year.
